

30. (Previously Presented) The computer readable medium of claim 27 further comprising instructions to:

- send the listing response for grammar processing to determine listing query information;
- send the locality response for grammar processing to determine locality query information;
- receive the listing query information and locality query information; and
- derive the listing query and locality query from the listing query information and locality query information.

31. (Previously Presented) The computer readable medium of claim 27 further comprising instructions to:

- send the listing response for grammar processing to determine listing query information based on most frequently requested listings for the directory assistance database;
- send the locality response for grammar processing to determine listing query information;
- receive the listing query information and locality query information; and
- derive the listing query and locality query from the listing query information and locality query information.

32. (Previously Presented) The computer readable medium of claim 27 further comprising instructions to:

- send the listing response for grammar processing;
- send the locality response for grammar processing;
- receive a grammar tag including listing and locality information based on the listing response and the locality response; and
- derive the listing query and locality query from the grammar tag.

33. (Original) The computer readable medium of claim 27 further comprising instructions wherein when the listing response includes a plurality of records, ones of the plurality of records are eliminated until there is one record or a common number throughout any remaining records.

Application No.: 09/642730

Docket No.: 57084-01006USPT

34-35. (Canceled):

BEST AVAILABLE COPY